Woody Battle Returns to Torrance

Returning to Torrance after a year's absence is Woody Battle, owner of Woody's Auto Painting, 2415 Arlington avenue. Battle has had his Auto Paint shop in the same location for more than three and one-half years.

A Torrance Optimist, Battle is also an active member of the Toastmaster Club.

Illegal Funds Being Solicited

The South Bay Chapter No. 92 of the Disabled American Veterans reports that unauthorized agents are soliciting building funds in this area, according to James Caldwell, of the South Bay Disabled American Veterans.

The agents soliciting funds are not connected in any way with the local D. A. V. chapter.

It has been revealed, said Caldwell, that no permission for soliciting funds in this area, has been authorized by the California state department of the Disabled American Veterans department of the state of California.

Hinckley's Asks Zone Variance on Torrance Land

Mrs. Elizabeth Hinckley, owner and operator of Hinckley's Market, Lomita, announced this week, that she will ask the Torrance City Planning Commission to grant her variance on twenty-five feet of property in Torrance. The property adjoins the Market property and is located directly across the Torrance City Boundary.

The Hinckley Market is last property on the northern boundary of Lomita, and the first property on the Torrance side. Mrs. Hinckley said she plans to ask that the property be changed from A-1 light agricultural to business.

Plea for Furniture At Cooke

The men at Camp Cooke are badly in need of furniture for their dayroom, reported Sgt. Benton Witt, 1617 El Prado, in charge of supplies at Camp Cooke.

To give Torrance men some place "to set their weary bones," when off duty, Jim Wilkes has announced that donations of furniture are welcome.

Those who have furniture to donate for the Torrance boys at Camp Cooke can bring it to 1617 El Prado or telephone Jim Wilkes at Torrance 518 between 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. each night.

The use of trucks, donated by Torrance merchants will be used to cart the furniture from homes to the central gathering point, 1617 El Prado, said Wilkes. HeT men from Camp

Schedule for Jr. Varsity Announced

El Camino College's junior varsity football squad will play four additional games this year, according to a schedule released by Athletic Coordinator John Morrow. The Jayvees have already met Pasadena and East Los Angeles this season.

Following is the schedule of games:
October 16 (Monday, Pasadena City College—Home—3 p.m.
October 26 (Thursday) Pasadena City College—Away—3 p.m.
November 3 (Friday) East Los Angeles J.C.—Home—3 p.m.
November 6 (Monday) Compton College—Away—3 p.m.

To avoid rear end collisions—the Los Angeles Police Department advises—stay one car length behind the car ahead for each 10 miles of your speed. Forty miles per hour—four car lengths, etc.

Cooke will arrange to have it taken to the camp.

TARTAR FOOTBALL NOTES

By JIM LEECH

The Compton Tarbabs handed the Torrance Tartars their first defeat of the season last Thursday night on Compton's field by a score of 12 to 0.

Although the Tartars played heads up ball, Compton proved to be just two touchdowns better.

The outcome might have been a little different however if the team had not muffed chances for a score when Joe Clevenger fumbled on the one foot line. A Compton player fell on it behind his goal line for an automatic touchback.

The Tartars, sparked by Captain Aramis Dandoy, did all they could to keep the Red and Gray a scoring threat. Everywhere Aramis went the Tarbabs were sure to follow.

Missing from the first string lineup last week was Cal Browning who was still recovering from a sprained ankle received in the Glendale game.

Charlie Camou started at end in Browning's place. Also missing at left guard was Bill Gray. Gray suffered a slight concussion when the ball hit him

Midgets to Race Sunday

For the first time in their history, the mighty midgets will have room enough to turn on the power!

The AAA Offenhausen, plus a few high powered Ford V-8's will return to Carrell Speedway this Sunday (Oct. 8) for a joust on the new sensational one mile Road Race course.

This will be the first time the midgets have been seen on a road track. The Offeys tried out the winding "pretzel" shaped speedway last week and unofficially were clocked in better than 100 miles per hour coming out of the north turn.

in the head during the Glendale Hoover game. Starting in his place Harvey Rushfeldt did a nice job in filling Bill's spot.

Both boys will be back and ready for tomorrow night's game. Although losing to Compton, the Tartars are far from being discouraged. Instead they are Great racing stars, most of them just returned from a successful racing season on eastern tracks, will compete in the Sunday afternoon 40-mile spectacle. Already on the entry list are Jack McGrath, Manuel Ayulo, Johnny McDowell, Mack Helings, "Bullet Joe" Garson, Sam Hanks, Danny (Poison) Oakes, Norman Holtkamp, Wild Bill Zaring and Billy Vukovich.

Then there will be a flock of greats from the URA, headed by Roger Ward, Bill Cantrell and probably the sensational Allen Heath.

full of fight and ready to start the Bay League games.

Tomorrow night the Tartars start the 1950 Bay League season schedule when they meet Santa Monica on the Tartar's gridiron.

The game looks to be a good one as Santa Monica is also a potential Bay League leader.
